"Mary had a little lamb"...That is the way the poem starts and on our cover is the schoolhouse from the very district and time. This little old one room schoolhouse stands, beautifully restored and maintained, visited by children from all over the state, New England and the United States. Henry Ford had a deep interest in preserving something of our beginnings for the future generations to see and in this lovely section of Sudbury, Massachusetts,

THE OLD GRIST MILL BUILT IN SUDBURY, MASSACHUSETTS BY THE LATE HENRY FORD. THIS STONEMILL OPERATES TODAY TO SHOW VISITORS THE OPERATION OF AN EARLY WATER POWERED MILL.

he transported and set up this little schoolhouse complete with desks, slates, benches and dunce cap so that the pupils of today could see their humble beginnings and marvel that so much had been built from such rustic and simple beginnings. This school is very near the old stone gristmill that appears on page 2. The old mill, built of field stone by Henry Ford, is powered by water from the pond that leads to the mill run and is directed over the large mill wheel. It seems hardly possible that the gentle flow of water from this almost still source could generate the power that is evident inside the mill as the gears transform the force from vertical to horizontal and turn the heavy mill stones to grind the grain. Unlikely as it seems, it certainly does the job. Visitors are allowed original inn was consumed in a disastrous fire about a decade ago which destroyed it completely. It was built back following the original plans and stands today just as the colonials would have recognized it. The Wayside Inn is the focal point of the area and busy at all seasons of the year. The country surrounding the Inn is a beautifully wooded area of hills and valleys and streams and ponds flow toward the site of the mill and inn.

On the crest of one of the rolling hills is the Martha-Mary Church. This gleaming white structure with the needle-like tower pointing skyward is the scene of a wedding most of the time. It is a most beautiful setting for such ceremonies and is always crowded with brides, grooms and guests as can be seen in the photo. This little winding Sudbury road is a piece of New England's colonial past and it continues to draw tourists and visitors by the hundreds. Particularly in the autumn it is a marvelous place with the color of the foliage to set off the old structures.

are not also fire or police officers; a DEQE consent order form directed to the Board of Health; an Appeals court case based on a 1985 Board of Appeals decision.

The Board of Health informed Selectmen that the state Department of Quality Engineering (DEQE) has issued new regulations and has ordered the town to respond to a consent order to change the board's method of covering the daily dumping, among other requirements. Other regulations include: build a stabilized access road to the disposal area; eliminate surface drainage problems and erosion of cover materials; hire a professional, state-licensed landfill engineer to monitor operations.

Health Board Chairman Evelyn Ellis said they have received proposals from three firms for a hydrogeological study and an engineering study. The cost estimates are from Tighe and Bond for $30,800; Weston and Sampson for $36,500. and G.H. and R. Engineering for about $31,000. She explained the Health Board would need $1,000 to start the first stage of the project for covering with fill every day. The balance of funds will have to be voted at an annual town meeting, she noted.

Chairman Ellis said there is a grant program being developed to reimburse towns that comply with regulations; however, the town probably won't receive any money for several years. Rules and regulations are still in draft form, but the DEQE has the authority "to shut us down. I term this an early warning - in other words, don't ignore this notice," Mrs. Ellis said.

One of the recommendations from the state is to increase the slope of the covered trash as this could increase the life of the landfill by five years. Engineers will give the bulldozer operators the elevation to aim for. Private engineers say "we are sitting on a few million dollar investment and we should take care of it", board members agreed.

Health Board member Daniel C. Lee said, "In talking to engineers, they say all landfills in the state are in the same situation - we are not alone. We have to let the DEQE know we are in the process of correcting violations the state claims we have. An engineering firm will serve as a go-between between us and the state."

Board of Health Agent Donald C. Wood announced the landfill will be closed Sundays, Mondays and Wednesdays, starting December 1, to give the operator more time to cover

There was considerable discussion on the amount of dirt needed to cover and how often a truckload would be needed from the town's highway department to keep fill on hand. Lee claimed the Board needs a firm commitment from Highway Surveyor Manuel R. Nunes. Selectman Frank M. Suzan commented Nunes will have to know just how much dirt is needed and how often it can be dumped before he can make a commitment. Mrs. Ellis noted a driver and a truck for three hours per week to bring in fill would help a lot.

Mrs. Ellis said the Board is planning to ask the Personnel Board for permission to create a new landfill job - it would be a combination gatekeeper and monitor. It is getting to be too much work for one person, Mrs. Ellis said.

Selectmen Chairman John DeCosta noted the state DEQE is an understanding group if they see you are attempting to do something to solve problems. The dates of 30 days to begin plans for the proposal; 90 days to change the cover material and 120 days to come up with a revised operation plan for the land-

Selectmen agreed Town Counsel should review the consent form before either the Selectmen or the Health Board sign anything. Also, Town Counsel will review any engineering proposals. The Health Board members agreed to give the information to counsel and to keep Selectmen informed.

The second matter that will be referred to Town Counsel concerns the question of insuring persons who volunteer for the Rescue Squad who are not also members of either the police or fire departments. Fire Chief Donald C. Wood explained that in the past volunteer EMTs were covered under their association with the fire and police departments.

John N. DeCosta, Jr., a member of both the Fire Department and the volunteer Rescue Squad, said the Rescue Squad needs a couple of new people, but want them to be volunteers only. This presents a liability problem. How will they be covered in the event of an accident? DeCosta said the Rescue Squad is a non-profit organization so "we can solicit funds and buy our own equipment; however, we use the rescue truck which is a town-owned vehicle. We respond free and donate a service to the town."

Insurance agent Peter Briggs informed the Selectmen these volunteers must be covered somewhere under a policy for accidents and liability.

Chief Wood said he didn't object to new members on the Rescue Squad but he does not need more firemen, "I can't afford to buy uniforms." Also, the chief said "I don't want the volunteers riding on the fire truck; they should get to a fire in their own cars." The Chief also said he had heard rumors that the insurance companies were not going to let anyone ride on the back end of the fire truck. This could create a problem.

Selectman James F. Huntoon said there are technical areas here that need clarification from town counsel for a legal opinion.

On another matter, Chief Wood said he may have to cut down personnel on the fire department as some are not responding to calls. In June there were 14 responders out of 32 members; in July 13; August, 12; September, 14; and in October, 15. Wood said he did not mean that 15 would be cut, but only that he would take a look at those who are not responding and determine the reasons why they are not answering calls.

The third concern for Town Counsel is regarding Mr. and Mrs. James Lind's involvement with the town's Board of Appeals. Mr. and Mrs. Lind of Peases Point and their attorney, Daniel C. Perry, asked the Selectmen if they intended to continue the appeals court case which started in April 1985 when the Linds contested an Appeals Board's decision.

Attorney Perry explained the situation began at the April 1985 Zonint Board of Appeals hearing on the Linds' application to subdivide a lot and to construct a house on the larger lot. The board voted three for and two against the application.

The decision was taken by the Linds to Appeals Court based on the decision being invalid because the decision was filed with the Town Clerk later than the legal 90 days. Attorney Perry said, "To my surprise the town resisted and moved for a summary judgement. However, the judge agreed to allow the Linds to construct on the substandard lot. The Town asked the court to reconsider and modify its decision. The Court declined to do so. Now the Town has filed another appeal to the Appeals Court," the attorney explained.

Attorney Perry asked if this action reflects the Selectmen's decision to continue to spend money on this court case. Selectman Huntoon said, "If the facts are as you state, I personally don't feel we should spend money on frivolous appeals."

Selectmen agreed to consult with Town Counsel on the case. Huntoon recommended Attorney Perry send letters to both Town Counsel and to the Selectmen summarizing the appeal and reasons for objections.

by VIRGINIA ARRAL

"The steady, all-day long voter turnout was, no doubt, attributed to the contest between Bradford and Foster and the length of the referenda questions," said Town Clerk Lois K. Jr. High Musical

Growing up sure has its problems these days...but it can be loads of fun, too. "Free to Be ... You and Me" is a delightful musical about many of the good times and some of the difficult ones, as well. It also makes a special effort to point out how traditional role behavior for boys and girls is limiting to a child's development and can, in fact, be destructive to creative growth.

The cast is comprised of eighteen enthusiastic and talented seventh and eighth grade students and one very patient and understanding principal. "Free to Be ... You and Me" is being directed by David B. Boyce, with musical direction by Susan Coyle and choreography by Marcia Mellor.

The production will be presented Friday and Saturday, November 14th and 15th at 7:30 p.m. in the Junior High School Cafetorium. Tickets are now on sale, $3.50 for adults and $2.50 for students and senior citizens. For further information please call 758-4928.

Old Rochester Service Days will take place during the month of November. Sponsored by the adult American Field Service Chapter, the Chapter teenagers of the A.F.S. student exchange program are offering their services to rake leaves, wash windows, etc. for $3.00 per hour per student. All proceeds will help fund the several aspects of the A.F.S. club--granting of scholarships to students wishing to live abroad under the A.F.S. exchange program, assisting in financing this year's short term exchange with students from Williamsburg, Virginia, paying the Chapter's annual membership fee. For years, A.F.S. has brought foreign students to the District and sent local youngsters abroad for international experiences. If you would like to assist this fine community program by hiring a Chapter teenager to do odd jobs this month, please call the Chapter president, Janet Pease, at 758-3300 to arrange a time which is mutually convenient for the workers and you.

Generics

How to save up to 50% on prescriptions

When new drugs are developed, the original manufacturer must bear expensive research and marketing costs. The brand name formula may be protected by patent for seventeen years and produced solely by the developing manufacturer.

However, when the patent expires, chemically equivalent "generic" drugs may be produced by many manufacturers. Subject to the same consumer safeguards and FDA regulations, generic drugs are time-tested formulas of equal quality to their brand name counterparts. . .but often substantially lower in price.

Though not all drugs are available generically, we stock more than ever before. Recent and future patent expirations will enable you to save as much as 50% on many of today's most widely used drugs.

You may want to ask your doctor if a generic is right for your prescription. Your pharmacist is a trained professional who will gladly help you and your physician select the proper brand name or generic medication at the best price.

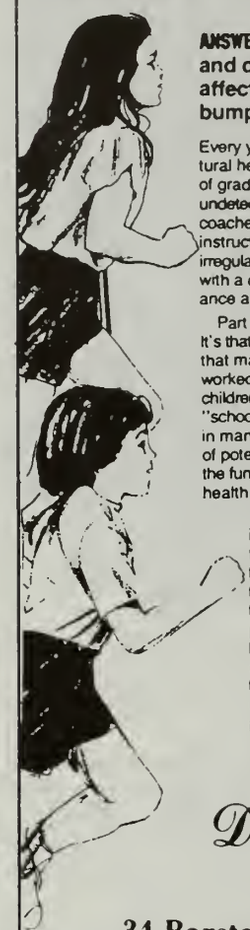
QUESTION:

WHY SHOULD CHILDREN HAVE CHIROPRACTIC SPINAL MANIPULATION?



ANSWER: Because growth and development can be affected by minor bumps, jars and falls.

Every year, thousands of structural health problems in students of grade and high school level go undetected even though teachers, coaches and physical education instructors watch for health irregularities which might interfere with a child's physical performance and learning ability.

Part of their jobs? Not really. It's that extra sense of dedication that makes these already overworked public servants give children that extra attention. The "school guardian" is responsible in many cases for the detection of potential health problems and the funneling of children to proper health authorities.

What most people don't know is that most health problems are far too complex for the teacher to note. And with a busy schedule, the educator can't be expected to have the time to screen problems that are beyond his or her scope of training, no matter how conscientious the teacher may be. The result: many children have health problems that retard their ability to learn or engage in sports effectively.

Here's what you can do:

- Parents should be urged to take more responsibility for their children's health.
- Parents and teachers should be alert to such things as changes in energy level, postural changes, moodiness, listlessness or any unusual signs that signal a problem that will impede learning. One of the observable signs is lack of interest in school activities.
- The structural balance of the child's body should be considered. The school teacher will no doubt note the child's posture, but that does not always indicate the structural integrity of the body. Comprehensive chiropractic examinations, including examinations of the spine, pelvis, neck and limbs should be recommended to avoid developmental problems.
- Incorporate posture awareness programs into your class projects. Write for suggestions and materials.

Memorial Day to Labor Day. He noted, "I wasn't expecting this award, but I know I worked hard at the campaign and we sure need the seatbelt law to urge people to buckle up."

Chairman DeCosta said, in presenting the certificate, "The award was based on Ennis' enthusiasm and overall community work in speaking to organizations and to students at the town schools. This is one of only two such awards made in the whole state. This is indeed an honor for Mattapoisett and we appreciate all you have done in behalf of the seatbelt program."

In commenting on the defeat of the seatbelt law in the November 4th election, Officer Ennis said, "I was not surprised at the results; I thought it would be close. I attribute the defeat to the lack of educating the public prior to the law being put into effect. Even though it is not a law, I urge people to continue to buckle up."

ORR Math Team

The ORR Math Team began its defense of its fifth consecutive SMC Math League championship in fine style by placing first in the beginning meet of the 1986-1987 season. "We led from start to finish," according to Dwayne Cameron, math team coach for ORR, "and we finished with a sizeable (22 points) lead over second place Dartmouth and a 35 point lead over third place Falmouth. Every year I worry a bit in the beginning, but the kids always seem to come through. We've been league champs so long (5 consecutive seasons) that none of the students have ever been on a losing team. They all expect to win -- each and every meet. My toughest task is to keep them challenged and motivated."

Leading scorers for ORR were Vicki Hiller and Lauri Lizotte with perfect scores of 18 points, followed closely behind by Sue Reid with 17 points. Other solid performances were turned in by: Jennifer Morris, Amy Reardon, Becky Crook, Mike Tremblay, Erik Morris, Joshua Pond, and Julie Holden. The next meet is scheduled for Thursday, December 2nd, at Bishop Stang.

Thomas Jefferson, Benjamin Franklin and John Adams were appointed to prepare the seal. Six years later - 1782 - after much study Congress passed a resolution approving the final design of The Great Seal.

When the President of the United States speaks, it is always before him. On this Seal one sees the eagle with spread wings - a symbol of strength and victory. On his breast, the shield signifies self-reliance. It contains 13 stripes, a reminder of each original State. In the right talon or claw of the eagle you will see an olive branch which has 13 leaves. In his left claw is a bundle of 13 arrows - signifying the power of peace and war.

Above the eagle's head is a ring of light in gold, surrounding 13 stars of silver on a blue field. The stars denote "a new State taking its place and rank among other sovereign powers..." The eagle has a ribbon in its mouth with E PLURIBUS

N.B. Whaling Museum

OPEN FREE WEDNESDAY AFTERNOONS

When was the last time you visited the Whaling Museum? Come climb aboard the 89 foot half scale model of the whaleship LAGODA. Walk around the dramatic 1848 panorama painting depicting the sailor's life aboard the working whaler. Discover the decorative figureheads and sternboards that adorned and identified New England's proud merchant vessels. Tour the Museum galleries of paintings, whaling artifacts and scrimshaw. Come learn about the men, women, ships and ports that developed the dangerous and exciting whale fishery into one of America's most successful 19th century industries.

Current exhibitions include "A Forgotten Luminist: Charles Henry Gifford", which displays representative paintings and watercolors of marine and landscape subjects by the 19th-century artist. The pictures are thought to illustrate the luminist style of painting which renders light and atmosphere in a clear and expressive manner. The exhibit will be on view through January 11, 1987. Also on display as part of an evolving and permanent exhibit are the new murals by marine artist and science writer, Richard Ellis. The murals depict sperm whales in half-scale size, including Mr. Ellis' rendering of the famed Moby Dick.

Free Wednesday afternoons in November are made possible by a grant from RTE Aerovox, Inc.

INTRODUCTION TO ORIENTEERING

On Sunday, November 16th, at 1:30 p.m., the Lloyd Center for Environmental Studies is offering an Introduction to Orienteering led by Outreach Program Coordinator Bill Chamberlin. There is no charge for this program, though pre-registration is required. Participants will meet at the Lloyd Center, 430 Potomska Road, South Dartmouth. To register or for more information please call 990-0505.

Orienteering is one of the fastest growing sports in the world. Using a map and compass, competitors plot their own course to find a sequence of markers located in a park. A variety of levels offers everything from leisurely recreation to intensely competitive meets which require as much physical stamina as navigational skill.

An Introduction to Orienteering is designed for adults and families who have had little or no previous experience with map and compass techniques. A basic introduction to the use of maps and compasses together will be followed by practice in the use of the newly acquired skills by following a short prescribed course through the woods.

The Lloyd Center offers free interpretive programs (weekly walks) every Sunday. There is no cost for weekly walks thanks to a contribution from Marianne Macdonald Real Estate.

Marriage/Divorce

WORKSHOP FOR STEPFAMILIES

Another side of the statistic that one-half of all marriages end in divorce is that eighty percent of divorced persons remarry. The latter statistic translates into the fact that nine thousand men and women remarry every week in the United States. In addition, spouse abuse is twice as likely in a family in which one or both partners have been married previously as it is when both are married for the first time.

In order to address the conflict that arises when persons remarry and bring into the marriage children from previous marriages, the Marriage/Divorce Center is sponsoring a one-day workshop on "Stepfamilies: Myths and Realities". The workshop will be held at 412 County Street, New Bedford on Saturday, November 15th, from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. The cost for the workshop is thirty dollars.

The two leaders will be Sally W. Hall, M.A., a Certified Family Therapist, and Lauren-Burgess-Jones, M.S.W., a Clinical Social Worker.

Food Collection

"ANSWER THE NEED"

To celebrate America's tradition of Thanksgiving, Plymouth Savings Bank began the "Answer the Need" program last year. This year the program is being extended from November first to Christmas. Customers and friends are being asked to share non-perishable food items with less fortunate members of the community.

Food collection barrels are being placed in the lobby of each Plymouth Savings Bank office. Because of the heavy demand for food which goes beyond the holiday season, the hope is that food supplies will be sufficient for distribution through the winter.

Bank Chairman Frank L. Nickerson said, "Through our 'Answer the Need' program, we hope to bring attention to the needs of our hungry neighbors during this season, and to help those organizations that work all year long to answer those needs."

In Mattapoisett, food distribution is being handled by St. Anthony's Church.

PREMIERES CONTROVERSIAL PLAY
"A SHARE OF THE WEALTH"

An exciting and controversial new play by journalist/critic Michael Couture is having its premier performances at The Gateway Playhouse mini-theater, off Route 6, Wareham, on November 14th. Definitely not for the squeamish, Couture has written a noir vehicle in the tradition of such films as In a Lonely Place and The Big Heat. A Share of the Wealth deals with gang rape, the mental cruelty of men who commit it and the unmasking of a society in which it thrives.

Couture wrote A Share of the Wealth two years prior to the Big Dan's incident. The intense gripping psychological drama about present day horror has stirred controversy for years. When a production at Gateway was finally scheduled actors rejected the work because of the harshness of Couture's presentation. Couture states, "It is a violent play about the gap that exists between the sexes, a void that in recent years has kept growing." In language and theme it has all the harshness of a David Mamet or Sam Shepard work.

Firming up a cast for A Share of the Wealth was a rocky road. Director Raymond David Cardoza, seen on screen in Streets of Fire, finally cast Detective Alan Alves and his daughter, Debbie Alves, in principal roles along with Michael Ventura as Welly. Cardoza himself is joined with George W. Hayden and a special guest star as the other rapists. The victim is played by newcomer Deborah Ditson.

Performance dates for A Share of the Wealth are November 14, 15, 21, 22, 28 and 29 with an 8 p.m. curtain. Suggested for mature audiences only, phone 295-6768 for advanced sales and reservations to A Share of the Wealth.

MASS. COUNCIL ON ARTS AND HUMANITIES AWARD

The Children's Museum has been awarded two contracts from the Massachusetts Council on the Arts and Humanities.

The first award is in the category-Merit Aid. It allows the Museum to continue some of its cultural programs. This award is a one to one matching expense contract.

The second award is for curriculum development. It is intended, specifically, to allow collection of folk art from the West Indies for exhibition and to allow research and development of curriculum comparing the West Indies culture with that of Cape Verdean and Hispanic culture of southeastern Massachusetts.

This award is a 3 to 1 matching expense contract.

The Children's Museum supplements these grants with matching contributions from the general public. The generosity of the community is essential in order to encourage institutions, such as the MA Council on the Arts and Humanities to award contracts for Museum activities.

The Children's Museum, located at 276 Gulf Road, South Dartmouth, is a non-profit, tax-exempt institution dedicated to stimulate in children an interest in art, science, nature and the humanities.
